Praise for A Midlife Journey

'This is a direct and honest account of the theological formation of a sincere and eminent theologian who also clearly possesses a great heart.'
-- Peter Tyler, The Pastoral Review.

'I found the book compelling reading...This book will interest many readers...Above all, it will reveal a wonderful man.'
-- Frank Mobbs, AD2000.

'A very honest and inspiring account of a man who wrested personally with what it means to be a Christian, a friend of Jesus, and a member of the Church in our times.'
-- Kevin Mark, Kairos.

---

Praise for On the Left Bank of the Tiber

'A delightful memoir...a great book for anyone who loves Rome or who hopes to live or study there.'
-- Anthony Pogorelc, America.

'A fascinating and enjoyable study...a very good read.'
-- John Gribben, New Directions.

'An excellent guide to its [Rome’s] nooks and crannies, O’Collins shows his ‘deft hand and warm heart.’
-- John O’Malley, Theological Studies. 